

POSTDOCTORAL FUNDING

3-YEAR AWARD • $77,000/YEAR

OVERVIEW

The Life Sciences Research Foundation award program identifies exceptional early career postdoctoral scholars in all areas of life science. Applications are accepted in the following broad categories: Biochemistry, Cancer Biology, Cell Biology, Computational Biology, Developmental Biology, Immunology, Microbiology, Molecular Biology, Neurobiology, Organismal Population & Evolutionary Biology, Physiology, Plant Biology, Structural Biology, and Virology.

The 2023 award amount is $77,000/year ($231,000 total). $66,000/year for stipend/salary and $11,000/year as a research allowance. This is a 0% IDC award.

The award is open to U.S. and non-U.S. citizens.

ELIGIBILITY

1) U.S. citizens are eligible to work in any geographic location. Non-U.S. citizens must work in a U.S. laboratory to be eligible for an award.

2) Applicants must apply within 5 years of receiving their PhD (or MD/DVM whichever was awarded later) as of October 1, 2022. If you received your PhD (or MD/DVM) before October 1, 2017, you are not eligible to apply. You may apply before defending your thesis, but must have your PhD (or MD/DVM) degree by the time the award is activated on August 1st.

3) You must have begun (or will begin) working in your proposed postdoc lab between August 1, 2021 and July 31, 2023.

4) The application requires a letter of acceptance from your proposed postdoctoral supervisor (the Principal Investigator of the lab where you will conduct your postdoctoral training).

5) You must complete your postdoctoral training in a lab different from that of your graduate (thesis) lab. Applicants planning to remain in their thesis labs for the duration of their postdoctoral training period are NOT eligible. Remaining in your thesis lab for a few weeks or months after receiving your degree, before moving to your postdoc lab, is acceptable.

APPLICATION

Five (5) single-spaced pages for the research plan, figures and tables.

Two (2) single-spaced pages for literature cited.

Three (3) letters of reference. One should be from your thesis advisor.

One (1) letter of support from your proposed postdoc mentor/supervisor.

APPLICATION DUE DATE: October 1, 2022 at 8:00pm EST

REFERENCE LETTER DUE DATE: November 1, 2022 at 8:00pm EST

AWARD ACTIVATION DATE: August 1, 2023
